

UN Sung SUPERSTARS in administrative services are everywhere. Too often they go unrecognized for being the glue that holds workplaces together and keeps them functioning. It's time they were acknowledged and celebrated.

Is someone in your workplace an UNSUNG SUPERSTAR?

Go to: www.bcgeu.ca/unsung to fill out a nomination form.

Deadline is Friday, June 30, 2017.

UN Sung SUPERSTARS will receive a special token for their great efforts. Plus, they'll be profiled on the BCGEU website and social media.

BCGEU members in the administrative services component provide front-line administrative and support services for the B.C. government and non-government employers. We work in a variety of classifications and positions: administrative officer, clerk, postal clerk, clerk stenographer, coordinator of volunteers, analyst, court clerk, financial officer, health unit aide, medical records librarian and technician, office assistant, data processing operator, radio, teletype and switchboard operators, stationery clerk and stockworker.
